“Work That Reconnects” Weekend Workshop

The Work That Reconnects draws on spiritual traditions and living systems theory to help participants discover how they can bring forth fresh vision, courage and creativity in this time of global crises.

This weekend workshop will weave sound and silence, teaching, reflection, and personal sharing together with interactive processes. Come prepared to fall in love again with life.

Eco-philosopher Joanna Macy, Ph.D. is a scholar of Buddhism, general systems theory, and deep ecology. A respected voice in the movements for peace, justice, and ecology, she interweaves her scholarship with five decades of activism.
